

Update from the Science Communication Coordinator

Dr Maria Eugenia Riveiro (FR)

- ONLY those publications featuring authors belonging to AT LEAST 2 different CA17140 countries can be considered as COST-related publications
- Do not forget that each CA17140 publication must report the following official sentence in the acknowledgment section:

This article/publication is based upon work from COST Action CA 17140 "Cancer Nanomedicine from the Bench to the Bedside" supported by COST (European Cooperation in Science and Technology).

- The acknowledgment statement and COST guidelines on visual identity are available on the homepage of our Action www.nano2clinic.eu

The Website and the social medias of our COST Action should be the instrument for the dissemination of our activities and the most frequent mean of communication among all members.

- Recently updated
- Space for communications on conferences, webinars, STSM calls and dedicated information for the different Working Groups
- Dissemination of Events, News and Open positions-job offers among the NANO2CLINIC website and network
- There is a direct link with social media (Broadcasted on Twitter and Facebook)
